KU HISTORY

Kutztown State Teachers College dedicated a new athletic facility, known today as Andre Reed Stadium. It contained four acres of playing space with facilities for football, hockey, baseball and track. During the inaugural football game against Shippensburg, “Terrible Terry,” a wire-haired terrier who had been adopted as the school’s mascot, ran onto the field and stole the ball from the Shippensburg team.

Herbein and Company, an accounting firm located in Reading, PA, has awarded the Herbein Community Hero Award to the Entrepreneurship Club of Kutztown University in the amount of $500. The Entrepreneurship Club is a KU student organization committed to helping individuals transform their passions into viable businesses. They strive to educate and support entrepreneurs in our community in order to build an environment where all can prosper. The club directly impacts campus and regional communities through various projects, including Entrepreneurship Week, the ELC-ECKU Business Idea Competition, and the Talented Teens and Business Leaders Mentorship Program.

◀◀◀ On Monday, Troy E. Spier '14 gave a talk entitled “Tabanovce Refugee Camp: Northern Macedonian Battle ground of the Global Refugee Crisis.” The presentation addressed certain issues surrounding the global refugee crisis, including the impetus for the worst exodus in recent history and the circumstances surrounding individual countries’ attitudes and border policies. Pictures and videos from the refugee camp in the Republic of Macedonia were shown, providing a virtual path taken by 5,000 to 8,000 refugees per day. This talk was sponsored by the Muslim Student’s Association.

The Department of Modern Language Studies and Rohrbach Library are honored to have been awarded an NEH/ALA grant entitled “Latino Americans: 500 Years of History”, which is a public programming initiative that supports the exploration of the rich and varied history and experiences of Latinos who have helped shape the United States over the last five centuries. A schedule of events at KU and nearby communities can be found at <http://library.kutztown.edu/latino>.

KU PHILADELPHIA HAPPY HOUR

Come meet Kutztown University's new president, Dr. Kenneth Hawkinson! On November 12, please join other alumni in the greater Philadelphia area for a Kutztown University Happy Hour at Maggiano's, located at 1201 Filbert Street, from 5:30 PM to 7:30 PM. The first drink is on us and light appetizers will be available. Take the time to mingle with other KU alumni as well as the opportunity to meet our new president. While the event is complimentary, we do require a registration to plan accordingly.

Just a short distance from the KU Happy Hour is the Philadelphia Museum of Art Craft Show, taking place in the Pennsylvania Convention Center. Current KU students and alumni will be exhibiting their work. Discounted tickets are available for this craft show by calling the KU Foundation & Alumni Relations office at 610.683.4110. A limited number of discounted tickets is available, so please call early to secure your entry. The craft show is open Thursday, November 12 from 11 AM to 9 PM, so feel free to visit the show before or after the Happy Hour.
